CHAIN PUMPS!

THE SUBSCRIBER WOULD RESPECTfully announce to the citizens of Decatur and Macon and adjoining counties, that he has secured the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT to

MANUFACTURE AND SELL

MERRILL & BARTLETT'S

Water-Purifying

Rubber Bucket Chain Pump,

and is prepared to furnish said Chain Pumps on short notice.

The advantages of this Pump over many others are many. The Chain being buttonless, it is much lighter, consequently it is not liable to break, and works much easier. The RUBBER BUCKETS which are attached to the Chain will not wear the Tubing, consequently it will last longer than when Metal Buttons are used. It is, positively, ANTI-FREEZING. It is a positive WATER PURIFIER, as each Bucket is constructed with an AIR CHAMBER, which carries a given quantity of pure air into the water, which immediately diffuses through the entire body of water, purifying and cleaning, and rendering it fit for use

GET RELIABLE INFORMATION.

We would advise all persons who are contemplating a trip to the West, either for pleasure or for permanent settlement, to first select the BEST AND MOST DIRECT ROUTE. Now the fact that the Old Reliable Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad and connections, form THE ONLY LINE RUNNING THROUGH PULLMAN SLEEPING CARS AND DAY COACHES from Cleveland and Toledo via the T., W. & W. R'y, and from Chicago via the C., B. & Q. R. R via Quincy to St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City, WITHOUT CHANGE, making direct connections at these points with all trains for the West and South, should satisfy every one that this is THE ROUTE. Should you desire a map of this line, or any information regarding time or rates, the same will be gladly furnished upon application, either by letter or in person, to T. STRENGTH FOR TO-DAY.

Strength for to-day is all that we need,
As there never will be a to-morrow;
For to-morrow will prove but another to-day,
With its measure of joy and sorrow.

Then why forecast the trials of life
With such sad and grave persistence,
And watch and wait for a crowd of ills
That as yet have no existence.

Strength for to day—what a precious boon
For the earnest souls who labor,
For the willing hands that minister
To the needy friend or neighbor.

Strength for to day—that the weary hearts
In the battle for right may quail not;
And the eyes bedimmed with bitter tears,
In their search for light may fail not.

Strength for to-day, on the down-hill track,
For the travelers near the valley
That up, far up on the other side,
Ere long they may safely rally.

Strength for to-day—that our precious youth
May happily shun temptation,
And build from the rise to the set of the sun
On a strong and sure foundation.

Strength for to-day—in house and home
To practice forbearance sweetly—
To scatter kind words and loving deeds,
Still trusting in God completely.

Strength for to-day—is all that we need,
As there will never be a to-morrow;
For to-morrow will prove but another to-day,
With its measure of joy and sorrow.

THE MOON'S INFLUENCE ON THE TIDE.—Scientific men appear to agree, for the most part, in the opinion that the tides are affected by the sun and other causes, as well as by the moon, but that the moon's influence on the tide is about double that of the sun. The calculated effect on the tides, therefore, would be that, when the sun and moon are on the same or opposite sides of the earth, the water should be three feet deeper, while it should be one foot deeper when they are at quarters; their forces act together in the first case, and against each other in the latter. In regard to the oft-repeated question, as to why the whole earth does not yield to the influence of these forces and get squeezed out of shape, the most plausible reply is that which contradicts the geological hypothesis that the earth has merely a solid crust and is molten in the interior; it is argued, in fact, against the latter theory, that, if it were true, the shell would have to be perpetually rigid in order for it to keep in shape, and that, unless it were scores of times even more rigid than steel, it would yield to the forces, and taking the form of equilibrium, there would of course, be no such phenomena as tides.

THE New Haven Union (Greenback organ) declares that it is as plain as anything can be that every Western State, including Indiana, will repudiate Tilden next month. As to New York, the Union says: "Politics in New York are in worse condition than ever. The situation bodes no good to Tilden. Betting men offer odds that Hayes will carry the State, and the general feeling is that way. It was an evil hour when the Democracy took up with Sam Tilden and made him the national standard-bearer."

BLAINE AT PEORIA.

The large party which went to Peoria yesterday from Decatur, Macon, Wheatland, Maroa and other parts of the county, were well repaid for their trip, by hearing a most significant and effective speech from that idol of Illinois Republicans, Hon. James G. Blaine. The notice of the meeting was only circulated some four days, but so great is Mr. Blaine's popularity in Illinois that it sufficed to draw together the largest crowd that has attended any political meeting in this section of the state this year. The day was very cold and disagreeable, but the thousands who came to hear the man from Maine braved the weather and stood for more than two hours in the chilling wind, drinking in every word of one of the best speeches ever heard in this land of great orators. Mr. Blaine was introduced by Col. Ingersoll, who said, "The American people admire pluck, courage, ability and patriotism, and these attributes are all possessed by the man whom I now present to you." Mr. Blaine's speech was a calm, dignified, statesmanlike effort, with not a particle of claptrap about it. He made no attempt to arouse the enthusiasm of his hearers, but gave them solid argument from the first word to the last. He abused nobody, and said not a single harsh thing, but drove his arguments home with one sledge hammer blow after another.

After the close of Mr. Blaine's speech loud and repeated calls were made for "Bob," but the eloquent Peorian was so hoarse from much speaking that he could not possibly comply with the wishes of his thousands of admirers. In the evening a grand torchlight procession concluded the exercises of the day. The procession halted in front of Ingersoll's residence, where loud calls were made for Blaine and "Bob." Both responded briefly, and with cheers for Hayes and Wheeler, the state ticket, Blaine, Ingersoll, and Mrs. Blaine, the crowd dispersed. A large meeting was also held at the wigwam in the evening.

THE information which we receive from gentlemen recently from the Pacific States justifies the conviction that the Electoral vote of California will be given to Hayes and Wheeler. For the first time in years the Republicans are united and enthusiastic, and are making and an active canvass. They will be disappointed in the Republican majority at the Presidential election if it is below 12,000. Nevada and Colorado will go Republican, and Oregon is by no means conceded to the Democrats. The expectation is that the Pacific States will be solid for Hayes and Wheeler.

SMOKED OUT.

Mr. Tilden, frightened at the inroads which the Southern war claims are making upon his party, has written a letter to his principal henchman, Abraham S. Hewitt, (son-in-law of Peter Cooper), in which he endeavors to stem the tide which has set in against him by declaring that he will veto any bill passed for the purpose of paying any such claim. The mere fact that Mr. Tilden thinks such a statement necessary to subserve his interests is the strongest possible evidence of the existence of a well grounded fear among the people that the success of the Democratic party means the inauguration of a raid upon the treasury by southern claimants.

Without attempting now to discuss the letter itself, it is a suggestive fact that, although this question has been agitated for months past, Mr. Tilden has not deemed it necessary to state his position in the premises until thirteen days before the election, a period too late to admit of its general circulation in the south, where the proposed raid upon the treasury is openly advocated by Democratic speakers, and where this manifesto of their candidate would necessarily operate against him, though he evidently hopes its circulation among the more generally reading masses of the northern states will help him steal enough of the latter to elect him with the aid of the "Solid South." It is the trick of the shrewd lawyer—the tricky politician.

As to the confidence to be placed in Mr. Tilden's recently expressed views on this all-absorbing question, and the faith to be placed in his promises, it is only necessary to say that the Governor who stigmatized a claim as fraudulent in an official message and afterwards signed a warrant for its payment—the man who is for hard money in the east and for soft money in the west, is not the one to inspire confidence in the public mind just now.

ORATORY VS. JOURNALISM.

The days for speeches have gone by, says the New York Herald, which adds: Webster, Clay, Calhoun, with all their eloquence could not move this generation as they did at their own age. The reason is that the press has superseded the forum. When the country was small and newspapers were few voters were obliged to depend upon public speakers for their political ideas. Mass meetings were then serious matter and had direct effect upon the canvass. Now they are mere celebrations, in which parties utter their enthusiasm. The last of the great debates was probably when Lincoln met Douglas on the stump in Illinois and argued the questions of the day in the immediate presence of the people. But speeches are not now made to be heard, but to be read. The great orator who speaks in a hall cares far less for his three or four thousand auditors than for his hundred thousand readers. Another reason why oratory is becoming every year less effective in moving the people is that it is preceded by the press. Mr. Bristow made a good speech the other day in New England, but his arguments had all appeared before in the Republican journals. Mr. Durand spoke at Hartford, but his ideas had previously been expressed in the Democratic newspapers. The true field for oratory, so far as it is to have a direct effect, is in the State Legislatures or on the floor of Congress. There personal magnetism often has an electrical influence. This was signally shown in the last session of the House.

THERE are a good many Democrats in Illinois who pride themselves upon their respectability, and not without cause, for personally they are as unexceptionable as any class of citizens can be. But it is one of the anomalies of politics that these same genteel and refined Democrats propose to give their votes for Lewis Steward for Governor, notwithstanding his coarse and vulgar manners, and his well-known unfitness for the high office of Governor. This is all the more strange since the only candidate against him is a gentleman of the highest social standing, against whom no man can truthfully urge a single word, and of whose ability there can be no question. The Democrats are loud in their demands for "Reform," but they stultify themselves by opposing a gentleman of worth and character, and voting for a swearing, vulgar boor. Strange, isn't it?

WHAT was it the democrats called Lincoln? Usurper, tyrant, dictator. They apply the same titles now to President Grant. The people are used to it. When democrats abuse a man, you can bet your life that man must be doing a good thing.

THE democratic papers North insist that the troops in South Carolina will intimidate colored men, and prevent them from declaring their preference for the democratic candidates. That ultra-democratic sheet, the Charleston Journal of Commerce, thinks otherwise. Speaking gleefully of an enthusiastic meeting at Greenpond, it says: "Twenty-five new colored members were enrolled in the club, and the number would have been tripled but for an accidental failure in the transportation of many new converts to the meeting. The meeting ended with music, and amid great enthusiasm." And this with United States troops in the immediate vicinity. There is want of harmony in the democratic mess.—Inter Ocean.

AN INDEPENDENT VIEW.

From the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Should Mr. Tilden be elected president of the United States, the extraordinary and unparalleled spectacle would be presented of a great nation rewarding a man with its crowning honors for being in sympathy with its enemies at a critical time when it was in the most imminent peril of any period in its history; for sulking in the back ground when all patriotic citizens were engaged in a generous rivalry to see which do the most for their beleaguered country; for declaring that the withdrawal of one section of the country from another could not be prevented by coercion; for advocating the peaceable separation of these sections; for saying that every Union soldier who marched across the enemy's territory could be compelled to pay damages for trespass; for engaging with others in the preparation of disloyal tracts for circulation among the people to dishearten and discourage them in their purpose to save the country; for declaring the war to be a failure, and endeavoring to make it so; for refusing to contribute a single dollar at any time and under any circumstances, to aid his country in its dire strait; and for acting throughout this entire period in the character of a grumbling and obstinate tory. But not only would the election of Mr. Tilden reward a man with the highest office in the gift of the people for being guilty of these disloyal acts, but it would at the same time reward with power all the enemies of his country with whom he sympathized, and give into their possession the control of the government they fought with a bitterness and rancor without a parallel, and enable them to punish the men who were friends of the country because they were its friends, and give them the opportunity to plunder its treasury or engage in a conspiracy for a new revolt. Should the people consent to so reward this man for this disloyalty, and these rebel soldiers and citizens for his treason and rebellion, who shall tell us that the democracy is not a farce, and the government of the people by the people, and for the people, a disastrous failure?

AN analysis of the full returns of the Indiana election demonstrates, what at the time was stated in the Tribune, that the Greenback vote was drawn chiefly from the Republican party. The entire vote for Harrington, Greenback candidate for Governor, was 13,213. In forty-one Republican counties his vote was 9,482, while in thirty-six Democratic counties it was but 3,713,—nearly three-fourths of it being cast in Republican counties. And of the fifteen counties in which he received no votes, fourteen were Democratic and but one Republican. The vote in Vanderburg, a Republican county, shows where the Greenback vote came from. The Republican vote was 32 less than in 1874, while the Democratic was 373 greater, and the Greenback vote was 438,—showing that the falling off which made up the Greenback vote must have been almost wholly from the Republican ranks. In Clay county there was a falling off in the Republican vote of 154, and an increase in the Democratic vote of 206, while the Greenbackers polled 364 votes, which, taking into account the increase of population, indicates that the bulk of the Greenback vote came from out the Republican ranks. A comparison of the votes of Hendricks, Tippecanoe, Spencer, Morgan, Vermilion, Switzerland, Vigo, Hamilton, and other Greenback counties, leads to a similar conclusion. Yet more strikingly is this indicated by the total vote of the State. That was 57,456 greater than in 1874. According to the relative strength of the two parties about 28,000 of the increase should have been added to the Republican vote. Instead, the increase in the Republican vote was but 19,703, while in the Democratic it was 24,540, nearly keeping pace with the increase in population, showing unmistakably that the great proportion of the Greenback vote came from the Republican ranks. With the Greenback campaign now practically eliminated, as it is, from the canvass, these figures show that Indiana is reasonably certain for Hayes in November; for, with the Greenback question out of the case, the great majority of the Greenbackers will return to [the Republican] party, from which they seceded solely upon that issue.—Chicago Tribune.

A great parade was made a few weeks ago over a proposition from General Wade Hampton for a joint discussion on the stump with Governor Chamberlain. The offer was at once accepted and attempts were made to arrange for the meetings. General Hampton's committee raised obstacle after obstacle and finally proposed that instead of the General himself a subordinate be sent to meet the Governor. Of course this ended the negotiations.

THE troops were not dispatched to South Carolina a day too soon. The colored republicans, after having played the part of Quaker non-resistants to the assaults of Wade Hampton's rifle clubs for eight or ten weeks, and finding that the longer they submitted to outrage the worse it became, at last turned at bay and struck back. The Cainboy meeting was one of the first places where they returned an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. In the fight several of the Tilden rifle club got killed, and others winged. The very first men to call upon the troops for protection were the Tilden White Liners.—Chicago Tribune.

FAILURE OF THE CONTINENTAL LIFE INS. CO.

Indiana Election Figures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Great excitement was occasioned this afternoon by a report that the Continental Life Insurance Company had suspended. The failure is due to the depreciation of the securities of the company, which are principally bonds and mortgages. An officer of the company says that the company could have kept on, but that the expenses of maintenance were gradually eating up the assets, and it was thought best to appoint a receiver to wind up the affairs, with a view to resuming at some future time. The officers are much excited, and decline to give any estimate. The Advertiser says that the failure is regarded as a clean smash up. The statement for 1875 showed the liabilities at $5,539,827; assets, $6,294,371.

ST. LOUIS, October 25.—Joseph Regna, a stranger, was prevented from committing suicide by drowning yesterday, and was locked up in the station house this morning. It come out that while walking through an alley yesterday he was assaulted by negro prostitutes, who robbed him of three $1,000 bonds, with $400 in coupons attached to each, and promissory notes for $8,500. The police took the matter in hand, and arrested a wench, on whom they found one of the bonds and all the notes. Regna is happy again.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 25.—The secretary of state to day authorizes the following as the result of the recent election: The highest vote cast was for treasurer, democrat, 212,019; republican, 206,218; independent, 16,082; total, 434,319; average plurality for democratic state ticket, 5,846, that for Williams over Harrison for governor being 5,139.

SALT LAKE, October 25.—This morning, the ten days having expired which had been allowed Brigham Young in which to pay alimony to Ann Eliza, his nineteenth wife, and it not having been paid, Brigham appeared in Court before Judge Shaffer, who ordered that A. A. Smith be appointed a special commissioner under the seal of the Court, and it was further ordered that the defendant be discharged. The amount due as alimony, pendente lite, up to the present time, is about $4,000.

NEW YORK, October 25.—The train which left Jersey City yesterday morning on the Central road was heavily laden with commuters from New York who had been delayed by the strike of the engineers and firemen. This side of Somerville the train went off the track; the engine was turned upon its side, two coaches were piled upon the locomotive and three other coaches were thrown from the rails. Three passengers were taken out the wreck dead, five others were seriously wounded and nine slightly.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Gen. Garfield has been called to Washington by the very dangerous illness of a young son, and he has been obliged to cancel his campaign engagements.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Information has reached republicans here that the most effectual measures have been adopted to purify the registration lists in New York, and that republicans there will give more time than ever before to the work. It has already been ascertained beyond question that gigantic frauds have been perpetrated in registrations by Tilden's managers, but it is believed that the methods adopted will now effectually prevent a very large part of them being voted for.

BOSTON, October 25.—Representatives of the New England colleges met at the Parker House yesterday afternoon, and an address was prepared inviting all the New England colleges to send delegates to a convention to be held at the Bay State House, Worcester, Nov. 22d, to form a Rowing Association of New England colleges.

THE Republicans of New York State are making a lively campaign. They feel very confident of carrying the State for Hayes and Wheeler if ballot box stuffing in the large cities, especially in New York and Brooklyn, can be prevented. The New York Times publishes a list of 270 meetings that are to be held this week in various parts of the State. Both the Times and Tribune of New York state that the Republican vote for Hayes will far exceed that ever cast by either party in that State. The Tribune estimates the Republican vote outside of the city at over 400,000, and in the city at more than 60,000. The Republican vote in the State will exceed 460,000. Unless the Democratic frauds are enormous, Tilden will not begin to pole that many votes.

JOHN M. PALMER, if the Democratic papers speak truly, strikes hands to-day at Cairo with the man who, in 1864, called Abraham Lincoln "the smutty old tyrant at Washington"—Thomas A. Hendricks, Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency.—State Journal.

TILDEN is and always has been such an earnest reformer that he would not wait for congress to reduce the income taxes of the dear people, but he began it with himself in a private, modest sort of a way.

Physicians Cornered!

I suppose there is not in the whole of a physician's experience anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal suffering from the fearful disease of Rheumatism. Heretofore there has been considerable diversity of opinion among medical men as to the true character of this disease, some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disorder, but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will be better satisfied and rejoice more than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a true cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a Boston business man cannot fail to satisfy all that the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure

is a wonderful Medical Discovery.

Home Testimony

BOSTON, Jan. 1st, 1875.
PROF. ALPHONSE HILLER:
Dear Sir—I desire to state that for the past three years I have been troubled greatly troubled with rheumatic pains; so severe was the last attack that I was compelled to remain in bed a helpless sufferer, and this is the most hurried season of my business too. A friend brought me two bottles of your valuable medicine, the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC Cure, and with pleasure I state that those two bottles affected a permanent cure upon me. Six months have since passed, and no return of this terrible disease has troubled me; I have on various occasions since recommended the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE to several of my afflicted neighbors, and always with a uniform result—a certain and perfect cure in each case. I am willing to be interviewed and verbally satisfy any fellow sufferer of the truth of this statement.
Yours respectfully,
P. SHEEAN, Merchant Tailor,
83 Sudbury Street.

The discoverer of this medicine has walked the aisles of the hospitals of London and Paris for the last twenty years, making Rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. For the past year it has been used with perfect success and satisfaction in the hospitals of Montreal, and is recommended by the very best practitioners in that city as a safe, speedy and positive cure of either gout or rheumatism.

In simple cases sometimes one, or two doses suffice. In most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles.

This medicine is for sale by all Druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, John S. Taggart and Jennie Taggart, his wife, grantors, by their certain trust deed, dated the ninth day of November, 1872, recorded in the Recorder's office of Macon county, Illinois, in book No. thirty-five (35), page 28, of the deed record of said county, did convey unto the undersigned, Wm. L. Hammer, as trustee, the following described premises, situate in the city of Decatur, county of Macon, State of Illinois, to-wit: Lot number seven (7), in block number three (3), in the Western Addition to said city of Decatur, to secure the payment of one certain promissory note in said trust deed described, made by said John S. Taggart, dated the ninth day of November, A. D. 1872, and payable to the order of Thomas O. Smith, and due six months after the date thereof, for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, with five per cent. damages per month, if not paid when due;

And whereas, it is provided in and by said trust deed, that in case default be made in the payment of said note, according to the tenor thereof, that the said trustee should advertise and sell said premises under the powers and provisions of said trust deed, to make the amount of said indebtedness, together with the costs, commissions and expenses of said sale;

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note, and the same remains unpaid;

And whereas, the legal holders of said note have made application to the undersigned, as such trustee, to sell and dispose of said premises under the powers in said deed contained, and for the purposes therein specified;

Now therefore, public notice is hereby given that I will on the Thirtieth day of October, A. D. 1876, at the hour of two o'clock p. m. of said day, at the front door of the Court House in Decatur, in said county, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the premises above, and in said trust deed described, and all the right and equity of redemption of the said John S. Taggart and wife, their heirs and assigns therein.

..In conversation with a democrat from Indiana to-day, we were not a little surprised to hear him say that if the Republicans don't carry Indiana in November it is their own fault. Speech of Hon. John A. Logan.

IMMENSE CROWD—UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM!

Yesterday morning it was announced that Hon John A. Logan would speak at the Court House in the evening, and notices to that effect were scattered over the city in the shape of hand-bills and posters, securing as good an advertisement of the meeting as was possible in so short a time. Notwithstanding the short notice the Court House was densely packed as early as seven and a half o'clock, every chair in the main room being occupied, and hundreds were compelled to stand. Besides those who gained an entrance, there were hundreds who failed to get inside the room

At about eight o'clock the meeting was called to order by Mayor Chambers, who announced that Hon Lawrence Weldon would speak in the Court House on Saturday evening next, and then called upon General Moore to introduce the speaker of the evening, which he did in a very pleasant manner, and in terms which were highly complimentary to the distinguished Senator

Upon taking the stand, Senator Logan expressed his surprise that so large a meeting had been gathered upon so short a notice, and then proceeded to discuss the political situation and questions of the day in the most interesting manner The principal part of the General's speech was devoted to the finance and currency question

Allusion was made to the complaint about hard times, and to the fact of depression in business and scarcity of money being charged to the Republican party. In reply to this, the speaker said that under Democratic rule, prior to the war, panics were much more frequent and severe than they had been since the Republicans came into power

As to the credit of the government, which has been a matter of severe criticism on the part of the Democratic orators in the present campaign, the speaker said that when the Democrats held control, the government could only borrow ten millions of dollars, and that at a discount of twelve per cent and an interest of six per cent, while now, under Republican rule, the bonds of our government are sought after in the money centres of the world where they are held at par, and draw only four and a half per cent interest.

The greenback question was then discussed, and the mode of using greenbacks and inter-convertible bonds in doing the business of the country was shown up and traced to its legitimate results, and was made so clear and plain that no man with half an eye could fail to see the ridiculousness of the financial theories advocated by the Peter Cooper men.

The matter of the payment of rebel claims was also referred to, and the certainty of the payment of such claims in case of Tilden's election was made apparent

As to the national debt, the speaker said that it was created by the war, and as the Democrats made the war, the debt was chargeable to them.

The claim of the Democratic party that the government must be reformed, and that the Democrats were the men to do it, was held up in a manner that showed its ridiculousness to an extent that must have made the Democrats themselves ashamed of such senseless twaddle

The Senator closed with an eloquent and stirring peroration, in which the people were charged to continue in power the party which had reinstated the old flag when it was trampled in the dust and spit upon by rebels and Democrats, and to continue to honor the men who had given their lives and fortunes for the defence of the government, when those who now seek elevation to place and power were either actively engaged to secure its overthrow, or in sympathy with those who did it. In the course of his remarks the speaker was frequently interrupted by deafening applause, and the entire audience was so delighted with the speech that scarcely a person left until the General was through.

At the conclusion of the address Gen. Moore proposed three rousing cheers for the speaker, which were given with a will, and the vast crowd separated, more than pleased with the eloquent address to which they had listened

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

At a meeting of the Decatur Fire Department, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the firemen of the city of Decatur tender their most sincere thanks to the ladies who contributed to, and especially those who rendered such valuable assistance at the "Tournament Supper," which was pronounced by all to be one of the grandest affairs of the kind they had ever witnessed. It was an occasion to be long and kindly remembered by the firemen participating.

Resolved, That the firemen of the city will ever kindly remember the interest manifested by the citizens of Decatur, and the substantial aid rendered

Resolved, That the thanks of the Decatur Fire Department are due the city papers for their aid in rendering the occasion a grand success.

Resolved, That the thanks of all firemen attending the Tournament are due the president of the State Firemen's Association, M. Benner, Esq, for the able, impartial and gentlemanly manner in which he discharged his duties.

HORSE THIEVES CAUGHT AND HORES RECOVERED

Some time since a couple of horses were stolen from Mr. Hawthorne, living at Cisco, and we now are able to record the fact that the thieves have been arrested and the horses recovered At the time the animals were stolen Marshal Haworth sent out postal cards through the country describing the horses and the men who were supposed to have taken them. Early this week Mr H. received information that men answering the description were lurking about Jerseyville, Jersey county, this State He immediately started for that point, and upon his arrival found the men in custody of a lot of farmers, who had turned out and captured them on suspicion, and had a rope around the neck of one of them trying to make him own up to the theft. The officer at once took the men in charge, and finally drew from them a confession that they were the thieves, and also information as to where the horses might be found. One of them had been sold to a livery stable man in Jacksonville, to whom the same chaps had sold a span of horses which they stole from Springfield, Missouri, a short time before

Marshal Haworth arrived here with his men and their booty on Tuesday, and lodged the fellows in jail over night, and yesterday went to Platt county with the prisoners and committed them to jail there. They give the names of Charles Stowling and Joseph Kincaid, the first named being the chap who was robbed of his money by a companion near the railroad track, a few miles east of town, an account of which was given in our columns at the time The fellow who robbed him and was arrested for it a day or two afterward, said that he was a horse-thief, and that they had plans laid to go on a stealing excursion, and sure enough he came back in a short time after being robbed, and stole the horses referred to above

Another Republican Rally.—On Saturday evening the citizens of Decatur and Macon county will be addressed by Hon. Lawrence Weldon, of Bloomington, on the political issues of the day.—Mr Weldon is an eloquent and able speaker, and special effort should be made to give him a crowded house.—People from the country should make their arrangements to stay in the evening and hear him

A ROUSING REPUBLICAN MEETING AT MAROA.

Eds. Republican:—At last Maroa has had a shaking up—a lively, thorough, energetic shaking up, of the good, old-fashioned sort—and Maroa, individually and collectively, feels better,—feels as does the husky throat of him whose thirst has been assuaged by a copious draught of "neck-tea,"—feels as does the hot, parched earth when the bounteous rain in gentle—gentle, but poetry won't mix well with politics.

The announcement that M. H. Chamberlain, of Beardstown,—he who gave James C. Robinson such a tight race for Congress in the palmy days gone by,—and W. L Chambers, of DeWitt, would address the people at Union Hall on Tuesday evening, brought out a full house, notwithstanding the fact that several appointments for speakers here had not been filled, and the additional fact that this township has long been considered democratic The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, a large number of ladies being present, and the meeting opened with a fair prospect of a good time, the greatest enthusiasm prevailing. R E Andrews, Esq., was made chairman, and the meeting came to order to listen to a patriotic song or two, well rendered by the Clinton Glee Club. Mr. Chambers was then introduced, and made a very clear, logical and stirring speech of some 45 minutes in length Then more music by the Glee Club, after which Mr. Chamberlain came forward and opened fire upon the ranks of the "hidden foe," delivering one of the most powerful, masterly and eloquent speeches it has ever been the good fortune of our people to listen to. Mr Chamberlain is certainly one of the gifted sons of nature. He is sharp as lightning, as true as steel, as solemn as a judge, as comic as Josh Billings, as good a mimic as Booth, as pathetic as—as—well, he knocks the socks off all the preachers in christendom At one moment his audience would be trying their best to raise the roof off the house with screams of laughter; the next, would be affected to tears. Men and women, Republicans and Democrats, all unite in pronouncing Mr. Chamberlain's speech as one of the most powerful ever delivered in Maroa, or even in Macon county. More music, and then Capt. Abel, of your city, came on the stage, and in a neat little speech of about five minutes, defined his position, and claimed the suffrages of the people of this community.

It is needless to add that both Mr. Chambers and Mr. Abel made a good impression upon our people, and are reasonably certain of a majority where the people who listened to their speeches have a vote.

Those in attendance express much satisfaction as to the result of this, the first Republican meeting in our place, and hope for "many returns of the occasion." TACHYGRAPHER.

CONSUMPTION!

Can be Cured.

This FACT has been fully demonstrated in more than 10,000 CASES,

—BY—

Dr. S. D. HOWE,

of New York, the GREAT

CONSUMPTION DOCTOR

Proprietor of the

Arabian Medicines,

Celebrated throughout the world for their remarkable cures. Consumption can most certainly be cured by the use of Dr. Howe's Arabian Milk Cure!

Dr. Howe's Arabian Tonic!
Dr. Howe's Arabian Liver Pills!

The PILLS, by the use of which the liver is aroused into healthy action, the stomach cleansed, and the bowels regulated.

The ARABIAN TONIC cleanses the system of all corruption, makes new blood, gives strength, and creates an appetite, and expels from the lungs through the blood the corruption which scrofula breeds upon them.

The ARABIAN MILK CURE strengthens the weak lungs, promotes expectoration, dissolves the mucous phelgm, and assists nature in throwing off the unhealthy matter, cleansing the irritation, and thus consumption may be cured.

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, and invigorating the nervous system.

VEGETINE

Is not a vile, nauseous compound, which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy which is sure to purify the blood and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

VEGETINE

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a fictitious appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health

VEGETINE

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

VEGETINE

Instead of being a puffed-up medicine has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

VEGETINE

Says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the labratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF WHAT IS NEEDED:

BOSTON, Feb 13, 1871.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefitted by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours,

U. L. PETTINGILL.
Firm of S M Pettingill & Co., State Street Boston.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 26, 1872

MR. H. R STEVENS:

Dear Sir—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent, my wife has used with great benefit.

For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness; these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.

She was also troubled with Dyspepsia and General Debility and has been greatly benefited.

THOS. GILMORE,

FEEL MYSELF A NEW MAN.

NATICK, Mass, June 1st, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—Through the advice and earnest persuasion of Rev. E. S. Best, of this place, I have been taking VEGETINE for Dyspepsia, of which I have suffered for years.

I have used only two bottles and already feel myself a new man.

Respectfully, DR. J. W. CARTER.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, Jan. 1st, 1874.

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have sold at retail 154½ dozen (1852 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy for the complaints for which it is recommended that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours,
AL GILMAN, 468 Broadway.
